La Nauve Hôtel et Jardin is the latest addition to the family-owned collection of exquisite European properties, Almae Collection, and a landmark opening for Cognac, France in 2023. This historical Cognac distillery, and architectural masterpiece, has been beautifully restored and given a new lease of life as an exclusive boutique hotel, set on the banks of the River Charente.

The belle époque mansion has been entirely reimagined, with just the exquisite exterior and facade remaining the same. Internally, the design thoughtfully reflects the rich heritage of the beautiful property, whilst artfully incorporating modern features. The grand staircase takes center stage in the entrance hall, which is dramatically lit by bespoke and contrastingly contemporary chandeliers, made exclusively for the property in Murano, Venice including the Hexagone, which hangs majestically above the bar with blue and white hues.

Another interesting feature is theParadis, a small hidden room which acts as a cellar and home to the finest brandies to be enjoyed pre or post dinner. The twelve, spacious accommodation rooms, including one Junior Suite, all feature delicate furnishings and unique touches such as beds and headboards made using roots of local Sequoia trees.

The gardens are a focal point for guests and local visitors alike. The 12 acre gardens provide a total sanctuary with plenty of peaceful corners to relax and unwind, such as reading a book, enjoying a private picnic or even practicing a spot of yoga. Featuring a century-old Sequoia tree, a small canal "Jean Simon," a variety of fruit trees, vegetable garden and rose bushes, the garden leads down to the Charente River, where guests can enjoy the use of a private boat and canoes.

A fresh, seasonal menu created according to the hotel vegetable garden lends pride of place to regional produce from the forests, sea, Cognac distilleries and local farms. The restored distillery building is home to Brasserie des Flâneurs, serving elegant dishes inspired by Chef Anthony Carballo's childhood memories. In winter, the fireplaces lend a cosy atmosphere to the venue whilst in summer food is served in the garden.
